

Villa Ducale

In the Heart of the Riviera del Brenta, between Padua and Venice

The ideal location for your training and personal development courses

The Villa

Surrounded by a centuries-old park of over 10,000 square metres, the manor house was rebuilt by Count Rocca in 1884 from the ruins of an earlier eighteenth-century villa. In 1959 it became a Hotel and is now the point of reference for hospitality of the Riviera del Brenta and of Venice.

Meeting and classroom training

The Villa has rooms available for meetings, reunions and training indoors, from small groups up to 180 people. Projectors, computers, microphones, boards are available on request. The rooms have a view of the park making meetings more relaxing and effective.

Outdoor Activities

In the park there are gazebos, trails, meadows, ideal for company outdoor training. This environment one can organize team building exercises, teamwork, games animation, meditation techniques and much more.

Restaurant

Our restaurant responds to every need: from coffee breaks to lunch or buffet, formal or informal, both within the Villa and under the shade of magnolia trees.

Rooms

The hotel has 11 luxuriously furnished rooms, with terraces or balconies overlooking the park. All the rooms are equipped with satellite TV, minibar, a safe, air conditioning, telephone and wi-fi.
